Approval of Minutes: Motion to approve 12 May 2018 minutes, made by Jim B, second by Ryan. Minutes approved.

Introduction of Guests: Rose is an 18-year Swansea resident. During this time, she spent many elections as an election judge. Rose has two grown children and works at Washington University in a lab. She enjoys her work and her community service. Swansea is glad to have you and your family as part of our community.

Mike has been with MEPRD for several years.

2018 Memorial Day Wrap-Up: As it is every Memorial Day, the ceremony is a great tribute to our veterans. The speakers, the voices of Westview Baptist Chorale, presenting of colors by Swansea Firefighters and the addition of POW/MIA ceremony was especially meaningful. Marilyn found sound system at Fire Station. She and John have only keys for locked portion of Lehr Bldg. She will also check on current Swansea Report printer for their booklet prices. Thank you cards sent to all.

Spook-Tacular 2018: Need more trunk n treat vehicles. July Swansea Report with have save the date info.

Mike Lukens is donating $500 to reserve the big pavilion. Since he always bought the hayride from our Auction, he wanted something similar for his family this year. Marilyn suggested he choose Spook-tacular. Food and drinks will be supplied as well as private parking places. Kids will have unlimited access to bounce houses and games. Brilliant, Marilyn.

Dan B. taking charge of games. David M. will handle advertising. Mike B. will help set up with Mayor Mike L.

Visit our sponsors whose new sponsorship year begins with Spooktacular beginning in July. Patriot donation and arm band sales = $1600; expenses = $814.

New Business: Clinton Hills. The Village is leasing property for six months and maintaining grass.

Unfinished Business: None. Public Comment: None.

General Discussion: There being no further business, motion to adjourn by Jim B; second by Ryan at 8:05 am.
